ADF – Advancing Freedom for the Next Generation

Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF) is the world's largest Christian law firm committed to protecting religious freedom, free speech, marriage and family, parental rights, and the sanctity of life. While many of ADF clients are Christians, they believe religious freedom is for everyone including Jews, Muslims, Mormons, and Jehovah's Witnesses. And they never charge their clients a dime. They exist on our donations

ADF is one of the nation's most respected and successful United States Supreme Court advocates. They have played various roles in 74 Supreme Court victories. Since 2011, ADF has represented parties in 15 victories at the Supreme Court. These victories have been on behalf of pastors, churches, religious organizations, college students, family-owned businesses, pro-life pregnancy centers, and many others. Many would be familiar with names like Jack Phillips, the cake baker from Denver or Barronelle Stutzman, the florist from Washington that ADF defended.

ADF was launched in 1994 by 35 Christian leaders like Alan Sears, Bill Bright, James Dobson, Larry Burkett, and Dr. D. James Kennedy to counter the legal efforts of the ACLU and other progressives. These leaders wanted to create an alliance-building legal organization with the goal of keeping the doors open for the Gospel.

Take a minute and see some of the Supreme Court cases here. You will see these issues defended: marriage counselors, web designers, Dobbs overturning Roe v Wade, organizations rights to protect their donors lists, pregnancy centers rights NOT to post info on free abortions, Christian universities and businesses refusal to provide employees with abortion inducing drugs, and many others. They have a large network of Christian attorneys, a ministry to businesses, training for law students, young lawyers, and journalists.
